

BOARD WANTS FULL TIME PLANNER

The Wilmington Planning Board, Tuesday night, voted to have a full time professional planner on its staff. The vote was unanimous, but perhaps with reluctance on the part of Austin Rounds. Chairman Danny Gillis was absent, on 'water investigations' because of the heavy rain of the past few days, and complaints of flooded cellars. Secretary Emil Berger told the Board that Professor Elliot of Harvard was in agreement that a planner was needed. He went on to say that what the Planning Board needed was a 'young Joe Courtney' who would work on the various reports and translate them into workable programs. He said the town couldn't afford to hire Courtney, who is now Professor of Government at Boston University but that they should be able to get a professional planner, with a planning degree, for $10,000 a year.

Berger said that the Industries of Wilmington would agree to pay the $10,000 a year, so that there would be no cost to the town.

WOMEN'S CLUB WILL HEAR CONCERT CHOIR

A Choral Concert by the 'Concert Choir' of the Wilmington High School under the direction of Miss Lorraine Kalil will be the highlight of the Wilmington Women's Club Annual meeting on April 27 to be held in the Fellowship Hall of the Wilmington Methodist Church. Also a Saprano solo will be sung by Mrs Roger W Dean of Holden, Mass.

Refreshments will be served at 12 noon by Mrs Robert B Michelson and her Committee.

The business meeting will start at 1 pm with Mrs Elwood E Gaskill presiding. The invocation will be given by Mrs Parker Hodgdon. At the March meeting the following members were presented by Mrs Frank H Tuttle, membership chairman: Mrs Ernest C Ball, Mrs Arthur E Harding, jr, Mrs Walter A Garnett.

ON A WELL DESERVED REST IN HAWAII: Sgt. Major Joseph Harrington, USMC (promoted on March First) and his wife Grace, enjoying a week at Walkiki Beach, during the first week of April. Mrs Harrington flew out to Hawaii to be with her husband, who flew from DaNang, in VietNam. He has returned to duty, and she is back home again.

Cain's 'Sheriff' Bill to be heard today

Three years ago, when he first became a representative in the General Court, Fred F Cain began a series of actions designed to cut taxpayer's costs in court legal fees. He hasn't got very far, but he is still trying.

He has at the present time three bills on court costs, House 351, House 352, and House 353.

House 351 would eliminate the power of Justices of Peace to issue summonses, and other processes in criminal cases. Cain says that the First District Court in Essex County is costing the taxpayers an average of $10,000 a year, paid to a certain Justice of the Peace, for issuing summonses.

In fact Mr Cain has two Justices in mind. One last year received $3466 for issuing such summonses and the other $10,180.

The Salem Court, he says, is only a five to ten minute drive from the home of either justice, and if the police were to take their summonses to the Court, there would be no additional fees for the taxpayers to foot. This is what happens in counties other than Essex.

House 352 is a bill which would require the Clerks of District and Municipal courts to issue duplicate receipts for fines and forfeitures collected by the court.

People, says Cain, are unable to understand why they cannot get receipts. To him a receipt is a business transaction.

He has talked with people who wonder if a clerk, or assistant clerk, could alter the records after a fine is paid, and then pocket the money.

He hopes that the bill will get a favorable response from his fellow legislators.

But the big bill, for Mr Cain, is House 383, which would stop extra payments to Deputy Sheriffs and others in Norfolk and Plymouth Counties, for serving papers in criminal cases.

The Boston papers have taken up Mr Cain's cry, and given it a lot of attention in the past week. His name has been prominent in the stories.

Cain says he is not opposed to Deputy Sheriffs, but only to their receiving double and triple compensation. The Boston Globe reported that the Deputy Sheriffs divided up $150,000 in extra pay, to deliver summonses in criminal cases - work that is done by the police departments in the other ten counties.

Cain succeeded in getting such a bill voted by both the House and the Senate last year, only to have it vetoed by the Governor.

This year, with the Boston papers taking up the cry, his hopes for a successful passage are better. The first reading of the bill will be today, in the House.

Ipswich Classified as 'B' Water

As a result of the public hearings last Friday in the Gardner Auditorium, the Ipswich River is to be classified as 'B' quality, in the standards being set up for Water Pollution Control.

'A' is the very best, suitable for drinking, a quality attained by few rivers in Massachusetts.

'B' is suitable for bathing and recreational purposes, and acceptable for water supply after appropriate treatment. There is not less than 75% dissolved oxygen in B water, no sludge, or solid refuse, no color, and less than 1000 coliform bacteria per thousand cubic liters.

Interested parties had been expecting that the Ipswich would be assigned a 'C' classification, suitable for recreational purposes, but not for swimming or water supply unless with appropriate treatment.

Attending the hearing from Wilmington were Rep. Fred Cain, Chmn. James Miceli and George Boylen, selectmen; Mrs J. Robert Evans and Mrs George Robert of the Conservation Commission, Mrs William D Hooper Jr., president of the League of Women Voters, and Mrs Theodore McKle, of the Wilmington Planning Board. Also present was Frank Colombo of Glen Road, representing the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation.

The classification of the Ipswich had been changed to B before the hearing, and was announced at the hearing, and the Wilmington representatives felt that it was unnecessary for them to stay, after that.

Mrs McKle filed a statement for the Wilmington Planning Board strongly urging a B classification.

Band leaves for Newcastle

The members of the Wilmington High School band will board buses of the Trombley Motor Coachlines tomorrow, at 7 am for Newcastle, Delaware.

They will play in that city at the William Penn High School, Saturday evening. The band has played in Newcastle in previous years and the Newcastle band has played in Wilmington. Henry Chisholm, Asst Director of the William Penn Band is a graduate of Wilmington High School.

Arrival at Newcastle is scheduled for 2:30 pm Friday. The band members will spend Friday evening as guests of the William Penn Band, and stay overnight in the home of friends.

Saturday they will tour Washington, DC.

The concert will be Saturday evening.

Sunday morning, after church services, the band will leave for Philadelphia, where that city is also to be toured. They are scheduled to arrive home Sunday at 8:00 pm.

Accompanying the 78 band members will be Alfio Graceffa, Band Director; Frank Lentini, Mrs. Joyce Aldrich, Miss Paula Martinielli, and Bernard McMahon, of the High School faculty.

THE OUTSPOKEN DR. GERALD A FAGAN

The story is told that one of Wilmington's industrialists lay dying a few years ago, his physician by his bedside. The patient lay gasping for breath, a terrible pain in his chest. The doctor told the patient that if he had listened to advice and taken things easy this wouldn't be happening.

The patient all but roared: 'Don't you tell me what to do - just get rid of this pain in my chest!' - and with that he breathed his last.

True or not, and it may well be, the story has often brought a smile to the lips of those who knew of the relationship between the late Caleb Harriman and Dr. Gerald A Fagan.

Caleb Harriman always had to be boss. Dr Fagan always has to say just what he thinks, and while his opinions are always meant kindly they can often be described as blunt.

Dr Fagan moved into Wilmington in February 1936 - 31 years ago. He was looking for a climate that would be beneficial to his son. Somebody had told him of the home of Walter Hale, for sale, on Clark Street. He found the price to be right, he bought it, and thus began a thirty one year relationship with the people of Wilmington.

And Wilmington, 31 years later, is to have a Dr. Gerald A Fagan Day, by proclamation of the Board of Selectmen, on April 26th.

Gerald Fagan was born in a small coal mining township in Pennsylvania. His father was a coal miner, and he too might have become one, were it not for the fact that High School, when it became time to attend that institution, was 12 miles away.

There was no such thing as a school bus. Gerald Fagan made the twelve miles each way every day by the well known institution of Shanks Mare.

And that wasn't enough. In the High School at Hazel Township, he went out for track! He became one of the best athletes, and it ended up with someone asking him why he didn't go on to college, where his track abilities could really be appreciated.

And that is how Gerald Fagan became a student at Villanova College, a small place with about 300 pupils.

That twelve mile walk (or perhaps run) to and from school every day started Gerald Fagan on the road to becoming Wilmington's favorite physician.

He graduated from Villanova in 1923. It was not the big university of today. And he went on, Medical Schools, the first being the Jefferson Medical School. Five years later he was in the Bronx, in New York City, part of the faculty of the Berwind Maternity Clinic, where he practiced, and taught, obstetrics.

Graduate students from many of the medical schools in the east would go to Berwind for a few weeks as a part of their post graduate work, and many from Tufts College in Medford told Dr. Fagan that there was a place in suburban Boston which needed an obstetrician badly, a place by the name of Charlestown, Mass.

He heard the story over and over from the incoming students, and finally decided to move to Charlestown. The story he had been told was correct, all except for one detail.

There was plenty of work for an obstetrician. He never had time to stop. But there was no money. 'Damn near killed me, in my first year - had everything but money!' is the recollection of Dr Fagan.

But he stuck it out, for seven years. Then he had to find another place, for his boy's health.

Wilmington had but one physician when Dr Fagan moved in, in 1936 - Dr. Ernest MacDougal. There was plenty of work for two men - or more.

Dr Mac, as he was called, was the school physician, and Dr Fagan became the physician for the Board of Health, a post he still holds, many years later. He also kept his eye on the high school athletes, which was, for him, a natural thing to do.

hand to his ear.

It isn't a physical ailment that causes Doc Fagan to sit thus, on the players' bench. It's the little radio he has in his hand. He is listening to Villanova, if that team is on the air - or else BC or Holy Cross, or any other good team that may be playing.

In other words Doc Fagan really likes football.

So now there is to be a testimonial in honor of him.

It will start at 7:30 am on April 26th., with a special Mass in his honor, at St. Thomas church. People of all faiths have been invited, and will attend. After the Mass there will be a coffee hour, in the church hall.

DOCTOR GERALD A FAGAN: At his desk in his office.

Dr Fagan has, without a doubt, attended more football games for Wilmington High School than any other person. He has told the kids bluntly - what was good for them and what wasn't.

He still attends every game, and can be seen going out onto the field when there has been an accident, to look over the injured player. He limps a little as he does this, today, and the rumor naturally has grown that it is from an old football injury of years past.

But it's really just a touch of arthritis - as he will tell you, if asked.

And frequently, while watching the Wilmington boys do their best (or worst) he will be seen with his

Then he is to be the guest of the High School, about 10 am. At noon the Rotary Club will have a Doctor Gerald A Fagan Dinner. And, in the afternoon the Teachers will have a Doctor Fagan Tea.

It's going to wind up at the Andover Country Club, at 7 pm with a Testimonial Dinner.

It's all very nice, and there are to be no long speeches, nor testimonials. Everything is to be on the 'fun side', at least according to Mrs Lillian Woodside, of the Wilmington Center Pharmacy, who thought up the idea of having a testimonial for a man before he was in his grave, and not afterwards.

How did she get the idea?

It is from the very bluntness of

Dr Fagan

After the death of Dr. Mac one of the customers at the drug store was bemoaning the death of Dr Mac - and how 'We ought to do something for him!'

Doc Fagan was sitting right beside that customer. As usual he was blunt with his thoughts.

'The time to have done something for Doctor MacDougal' he said 'Was while he was still living and could appreciate it!'

And that's where Lillian Woodside got the idea.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208 Wilmington, or call 657-7141, or 658-4865 after five. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

Did you know that Wilmington is still a One Horse Town? One horse to one child, that is... at least this is true of the 4H Midnight Riders. They all had a great time at the Country Show, last Saturday in Bolton.

They all met at the Fielding Farm on Hopkins Street at 7:45 am and left, along with their demonstration for the all day trip. Too bad, in the excitement, that they left half of their exhibit behind, but they still received an 'A' for originality of their display.

They have been having a wonderful time for the past few months preparing for the outing, and all the 4H'ers had a good lesson in horse care, given by Lois Sellow. As in all 'happy families' there is still 'room for one more' - and if anyone else wishes to join up they can call Pat Trill at 658-3507 or Dot Fox at 658-4262, or even Diane Fielding at 658-8220.

Rumor has it that some boy in Wilmington has won the Beef Cattle Judging championship, at the 4H County Exhibit, and thus won a trip to Kansas in September... Who could it be?

Danny Sughrie of Floradale Ave and formerly of Salem Street is in the New England Memorial Hospital in Stoneham for some tests. He goes to the Boutwell Street School, and would love to hear from his friends.

What famous car salesman got caught this week with his apron on, cooking his own lunch... after having declared loudly that he wouldn't get caught 'dead' with one on? Hmmm...

Dottie Melander and troop of Church Street spent the spring vacation in Florida, while Papa Carl was at home, baby sitting his new plant. Carl is the owner-operator of the new Ceric Fabricating Co. on Route 125, near Wilson's.

Don't forget Doc Fagan's testimonial. Tickets can be obtained at the Silver Lake Pharmacy (Louie's Red Carpet Emporium); the Kristal Pharmacy, Woodside's Wilmington Center Pharmacy and the North Wilmington Pharmacy.

Have you seen Big Joe's red wallpaper... striped... to go with the red ceiling? The remodeling is gorgeous - you wouldn't believe it - and Joe is grinning over his stainless steel counter!

At the rate the telephone calls are coming through the Town Hall on the cleanup at the Silver Lake Shopping Center the ladders at the Hall are on the ball! However, phone calls are faster than the people can operate - Patience, folks, and it will be done - and Puhleeze, kids, no more broken bottles!

Three bushels of glass last week end and then more, three days later. Help!

They tell me the kids have done a thousand dollars in damage up there, recently. It's tough for the storeowners to keep up with such damage. Your assistance would certainly be appreciated.

The Girl Scout Cadettes will be having an auction sale on Saturday May 6th at the hall at St. Dorothy's Church. Keep it in mind folks, and I'll pass the word on where to call to donate your stuff - Spring cleaning, you can put aside the things you wish to dispose of, and give it to the Cadettes!

Due to a goof I got a message wrong last week. Annette Levers says the kids swimming classes are filled to overflowing, and she wanted to know if any of you gals were interested... if so, please call her.

Congratulations to Angelo Di Tommaso and his new bride. After a honeymoon in New York, they are now at home in Apartment B, at 52 Main Street. Many years of happiness, kids!

It was Barbara Peterson who was chosen the Queen of the Junior Prom at the Hillview Country Club last Friday evening. Barbie was ravishing in cherry and pink.

Her attendants were Lauris Moorman, Christine Gillette, Anne Robertie and Ellen Sicard.

The theme was Moonlight and Roses, and the stage was decorated with trellis and roses. The Queen's Throne was decorated in red taffeta, and the Queen, in her gown, just blended right into that throne.

The dinner was roast beef, with the fixings, and free cokes! The band was very good, in the opinions of the Juniors, but the report is that they exactly duplicated 'Tijuana Brass' and nobody clapped! Chaperones were Mr and Mrs Grecco, Mr and Mrs Duquette, Mr and Mrs Lentini, Mr and Mrs Elliot, Mr and Mrs McLean, Mr and Mrs Hanson, and Miss Martinelli and her fiancé. Mr Hanson is the Class Advisor.

We hear that Martha Baker's party was a blast... more power to parents like hers. No parents had to worry a minute about their kids. They came home, changed, and went off to the Bakers, happy as larks. Those Bakers can have eternal gratitude from other parents for their care and thoughtfulness!

The birdies told me this week that what's scheduled for the other part of Mike Weinberg's store is a CUMBERLAND FARMS store, like the new one in Tewksbury.. That will be excellent... Welcome Cumberland.

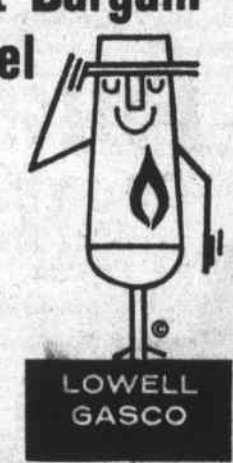

The Sons of Italy are having a dance in the Grange Hall on April 29th... Call Frannie Gray for the tickets. Speaking of Grays, George Jr. has been promoted. He just made Boatswain's Mate 3rd Class and is still stationed in Adak, up in the Aleutian Islands. He hopes to be home for leave on July 1... Will be looking for you, George!

Barbara Dayton tells me that the work days for Camp 40 Acres this year are scheduled for May 6 and May 13, both Saturdays. Bring your rakes, shovels, and hoes.... The food will be provided. That should be a good family day out, PAGE EIGHT

Selectmen's Meeting

Politics ruled, Monday night, in the Selectmen's meeting. The target for the night was Joseph F. Courtney, former Town Manager, and now a member of the Wilmington Finance Committee.

Rep. Fred F. Cain, a Democrat, also seemed to be a target of remarks made by the Chairman of the Board, James Miceli, a Republican.

Courtney was the target of three selectmen, who voted that the Finance Committee should be considered as 'regular' employees, with respect to the Conflict of Interest law. The members of the Finance Committee receive no pay.

At the same time the Selectmen voted that Dr. Gerald A. Fagan should be in the less restrictive capacity of being a 'special' employee of the town. Dr. Fagan, an innocent victim of the political situation, is paid for his work as Medical Officer of the Board of Health, and also as School Physician.

The remarks against Mr. Cain had nothing to do with the Conflict of Interest Law, but rather for his work on the Nichols St. bridge.

The meeting opened with Chairman Miceli announcing that Danny Gillis, Chairman of the Planning Board, would be with the Selectmen next week with a 'Solution to the problem on Redwood Terrace'. Mr. Gillis, he said, was working with the town engineer and the developer on the solution.

The Town Engineer, Miceli said, had proposed that a ditch be dug all around the area, to drain the water away from the surface.

The question was posed as to where the water would drain to. The answer was that Gillis and the Town Engineer would supply the answer.

Boylen wanted to know about gravel removal in a North Wilmington development. He was told that the original permit had been issued in 1965 and that there had been two subsequent renewals. Mr. Gillis is to recommend on this next week, too, Miceli said.

The Town Manager wondered if the original permit was good, and Boylen asked if the Selectmen could rescind it, to which Miceli said it could not be, if it conforms to the original terms of the permit. Niles said that they had been asked to remove one gravel hill in the area because children were coasting down the hill into the street.

Then the Selectmen got to the Classification List of town employees, whereby employees are classified, as to their standings, in the Conflict of Interest Law.

Briefly, the law says that persons receiving over $800 a year from the town are to be considered as 'regular' employees and may not do business with the town. A person receiving less than $800 is a 'special' employee, and can conduct business with the town. The Selectmen may, however, vote that certain boards are to be considered as 'regular' employees, and several years ago voted this status for themselves and for the school committee.

The first item was a letter from the Town Counsel, stating that the Selectmen could classify the Wilmington Housing Authority, and the Wilmington Redevelopment Authority. Mr. Boylen moved that they be classified as 'Regular', i.e. 'Full Time'.

Black asked if this wasn't putting the selectmen in a position where they would have no leeway for volunteers.

Niles said that he doubted if the local business men would be willing to participate in voluntary situations, where there would be a severe handicap of being classified as a 'regular' employee.

Niles and Black opposed, and the three other selectmen voted in favor.

Mr. Miceli then made a motion that 'All others, whether or not named full or part time employment, shall be classified as regular' be stricken from the record. Melzar doubted this and said it seemed the selectmen were classifying future employees.

Boylen, saying that he felt that every individual should have individual consideration, second Miceli's motion.

Niles said that he felt that anyone who was being paid by the community, employees of the community, should be classified as 'regular'. Boylen then said 'Why not eliminate 'part-time' from the motion. Niles pointed out that 'we' may not be hiring these people.

TM Melzar told the Selectmen that theoretically they would all be on the payroll, and that the Town Manager 'will know about them'.

Niles then spoke up to say that the Selectmen should do all they could to encourage citizen participation, and that under these circumstances this couldn't be done. Miceli said that they should be classified as 'regular' upon election, and the motion should be amended to strike out the words 'part-time'.

Niles then recommended that the TM should notify each and every employee as to his status. The motion, if it was such, did not carry.

Niles then moved that a policy be established that the TM notify all full time and part time employees that they were now 'regular' town employees, and thereby subject to the Conflict of Interest law.

This was voted.

Miceli then brought up the subject of the Finance Committee. Niles thought that they should be classified as 'special'.

Boylen moved that they be classified as 'regular'. Miceli seconded. Niles asked if a discussion was in order.

He read a statement from Webster, Packard and Stevens, a firm of attorneys in Boston, with regard to the Conflict of Interest law. It 'assumes that the finance committee is properly classified as 'special', pointing out that the only function of the committee under the statutes of Massachusetts and the town By-Laws is to report on the Articles, in the regular and special town meetings. This duty, he said, does not classify them as 'regular' employees. In the towns of the Commonwealth, Niles said, 126 have classified the Finance Committees as 'special' and 38 have classified them as 'regular'.

Mrs. Drew said that the Reading Finance Committee was classified as 'regular'.

Boylen said he didn't know any board in the town that was more embroiled. Niles said there were many more - the Planning Board for one.

The Finance Committee, Niles said, could only recommend to the Town Meeting. The Town Meeting made the decisions, the Finance Committee didn't. When the Finance Committee had made its report to the 'legislative body' (town meeting) the town meeting made the decision.

Boylen said the town could find enough people to serve on the Finance Committee who didn't have a conflict of interest.

Niles replied that he was thinking in terms of the future, and that

The sports news out of Wilmington High was on the grim side this past week. The WHS baseball team dropped its first two league games 6-1 to Burlington and 6-0 to Chelmsford. Billy Steber and Don White suffered the setbacks for the Wildcats, who entertain Dracut today.

The weather hasn't been all too conducive to batting practice so this early season hitting slump is not really indicative of this team's prospects. There are several good bats in the lineup and they should help offset an apparently shallow mound staff.

This year's Merrimack Golf League includes high school teams from Andover, Lowell, Lawrence Vocational, Austin Prep, Dracut, and Chelmsford, as well as Wilmington.

In track action, North Andover ran away from the Wildcats in the opener, 70-43. First place finishers wearing blue and white were Thomas - high jump; Zaverion - broad jump; Harrington - two mile; Doucette - low hurdles; and Knight - one mile.

On Friday, Methuen treated our boys with evenless mercy, winning 74-39. Ed Thomas and Dave Knight were again victors in their specialties; Glen Cox won an exciting 880 and Wilmington took the relay.

Distance runner Frankie Harrington competed in the holiday three mile race in Wakefield Wednesday.

UNRESERVED

No gentleman ever deserved a testimonial more than one Dr. Gerald A. Fagan, to be honored at table next Wednesday night. He has served Wilmington for the better part of his years as a general practitioner, one of that vanishing breed who make house calls. For the past twenty odd years he has tended ills as school physician, an extra duty his own health hardly perpetuates. With a wit as sharp as his tongue, 'Doc' is a distinctively straight shooter, which makes for a refreshingly unique bedside manner or athletic critique. This Buddy Leroux of the WHS football squad is a credit to his name, his profession and his town. It's too bad all we can do is say thanks!

Pony League tryouts this week.

Little League tryouts were washed right off the agenda by two straight rainy weekends, so coaches went ahead and selected aspirants sight unseen.

Well, the Bruins dumped Jim Laing. They don't want a first class announcer describing last place games.

Since Wilmington no longer has organized ball teams for its junior high schoolers, potentially good athletes have to sit around with their thumbs twiddling until they graduate the eighth grade.

Little League baseball, Pop Warner Football, Pee Wee Hockey, and Town League basketball all give the kids valuable game experience, but only the large Pop Warner staff can approach the professionalized, specialized coaching youngsters require in all of these sports.

High School coaches find fundamentals sadly neglected in the backgrounds of their annual crops of frosh. What do we blame? We blame that oft belabored bugaboo, the inadequate athletic budget.

Let's get something done about it. Our track team is a perennial also ran, the basketball squad couldn't have finished lower using medicine balls, and the calibre of hockey, though not bad for its conference, is pathetically far behind that of surrounding leagues. There fore, while waiting for the ship to come in, how about allowing some of the more physically mature and athletically promising eighth graders to join the freshman or jay-vee teams.

ENTHUSIASM UNDAMPENED BY HEAVY RAIN: Boy Scouts of Troop 63 left on Tuesday morning for a three day camping trip to Groton:

You've really got to have a heart . . . not only to be a good person, but to survive to any degree of longevity.

The most important hardest working and strongest muscle in your body is your heart. The amount of work the heart does is literally staggering to contemplate!

As a matter of fact, the heart of a normal man beats about 72 times a minute, 104,000 times a day, and 38,000,000 times in an average lifetime. But - don't worry, nature has over-compensated for its responsibilities. It is one of the most powerful muscles in the human anatomy and it does enough work in 24 hours to equal the force required to raise a ton of dead weight to a height of 83 feet in the air . . . all with comparative ease. How's that for being muscle-unbound?

Take heart . . . there is a solution to most problems and the quickest solution to minor health problems lies with your pharmacist. Our pharmacists will quickly serve you with minute attention to every detail of your needs. . . Rely on Silver Lake Pharmacy. Free Prescription Delivery. . . Plenty of Free Parking. . . Mr and Mrs Long are originally from Rhineback, New York.

ST. THOMAS CHURCH

School of Religion: No classes this week because of vacation.

Youth Center: We are grateful to all those who contributed last week. Many did not use envelopes and therefore we do not have their names. If you did not would you kindly drop us a line, since we would like to have the names of all contributors. We are still short of the goal, but do hope that within a week or two all returns will be in, and then we will give an accounting.

Friday: 7 pm, The Audubon Society will show a movie to all the Boy Scouts.

Saturday: Giant CYO Car Wash $1.00, from 9-4. We promise to do a good job. It will also be clean-up day. CYO members not busy washing cars will help to put the Church property in shape. 8-11 pm, CYO Dance "The Spirit of Now" Orchestra.

Camping: Camp Cedar Crest, for information write Mary Bowen, 77 Dover St, Medford 02155.

Coming: April 24, 8:30 pm, CCD Executive Board Meeting, April 26, Dutchmaid Party at the home of Mrs Irene Rogers for the CDA Charities. April 26, 7:30 am, Mass of Thanksgiving to honor a faithful physician and parishioner, Dr Gerald Fagan. Coffee hour and reception to follow in the Church basement. 7 pm Testimonial Dinner at the Andover Country Club.

May 21, Trinity Sunday, Notify us if any of our aged or infirm have not received Holy Communion Easter-tide. Two of our priests hear confessions in French and Italian.

Next Sunday: 1 pm, The annual Spring Paper Drive. We expect a goodly number of the older boys to volunteer their help.

all of you nature lovers. Let's get with it and help the town out!

Nancy London of Church St has been selected as the Girl Scout Cadette Representative from the Region and is scheduled to go to a Conference at Rhode Island University during the second week in July. Patty Lounsberry of Shady-lane Dr is her alternate. Incidentally there is a picture of Nancy on the Camp folder this year. We are particularly glad for her, for we feel this year they have a real representative.

Nancy has been working with scouting ever since Brownies, and is still going strong. Congratulations Nancy that are going to the Air Force this year. John Gagnon, William Lowell, Peter Mazzapica and Anthony Tedesco...John and Peter leave May 25, and Bill and Tony leave in July...Good Luck Boys! Thanks to the contributor, although Anonymous, for the kind P.S. words!

Marvin D. Russell Sr. is in the hospital at Malden, Mass. His many friends will be glad to hear that he is coming along nicely. (I understand there are some Brother Masons who are going to get hung, unless they make with the cards. So let's all surprise him, and make this a Town project...Hmm? Like you did for Ariel Wood...You folks are great with that...Marvin D. Russell Sr, Malden Hospital, Malden, Mass.)

Speaking of you folks being great is it my imagination, or are the paper 'picker uppers' getting with it...It seems that perhaps...just perhaps, I may have made a dent...or you have on the papers. Great! There is still a lot to be desired. I'm for a Teen Cleanup the Town Committee...Your thoughts? We sure would like to see that happen.. Understand it has in other towns.. What say, kids?

The First Communion Class for St Dorothy's Church will be received, Saturday April 22, at 8:30 am Mass. Approximately 170 children will receive. Children are requested to be at the church (lower church hall) at 8 am, Sat. April 22. Photographs may be taken of the class, if you desire.. Rehearsals will be held with Sister Leo Marie and Sister Helen Donald on April 19, 20, 21-Wed. Thursday, and Friday, from 10 to 11:30 am. The bus will pick up students starting at 9 am, making the usual Sat. bus trip and pickups. Students are requested to be ready at the bus stop by 9 am.

The CCD Class at St Dorothy's will have no classes this week (except First Communion as said above.) However parents are requested to remember to complete the survey sheet given to the sixth grade and seventh grade students at last week's classes.

At a recent Board of Directors Meeting at St Dorothy's, it was suggested that a survey be taken for the CCD Classes to be held next year-1967-68. This year, classes are as follows: Monday grades 10,11; Wed. grades 7,8,9; Sat. grades 1 through 6. Proposed classes for next year are Wed. grades 9-12; Sat. grades 1-8. Eliminate Monday classes. A survey sheet was given to every student in the 6th & 7th grades (next year's 7th & 8th) and the Board members request that parents return the sheet with comments of approval or disapproval of next year's proposed class Schedule. Survey sheet to be returned to student's CCD teachers during their next regular class.

The Wilmington Jaycee-ettes will be holding a Dutch Maid party and Demonstration tomorrow (Friday) at 8:30 pm at the Wilmington Skating Club House on Chestnut Street. The proceeds are to go to the Dr. Jim Turpin Fund, and his Project Concern. Dr. Turpin is the man who is supplying hospitals and medical help for the people of South Vietnam.

Refreshments are to be provided and if you need a ride call Marie Burbine at 658-8738 or Judy McNally at 658-8119. Come on Gals, get a carful from the neighborhood, and buy your fall summer jerseys and shorts, supporting a worthy cause at the same time.

Guess what! Amy Jean Farrel 12 years old, won a watch on WRKO. It will come to her by mail. She was the third one to call the program! Nice going Amy Jean...I'll bet you are a champion dialer!

It has been called to my attention several times this week and I believe the parents should know this...The kids are playing in the cemetery...and in several instances, vases and urns have been broken and the flowers spread around. Folks, please check on that, will you? Thanks!

even now, there were two men on the committee who he knew would be put in a questionable position. These men were now serving, he said, appointed by the town.

We should make it easy for people to serve, instead of penalizing them, was Niles' position.

Boylan said that they were concurring on every thing except the classification. Melzar said the Selectmen had the power to exempt anyone from his classification, and he recommended that the classification should be 'special'. To this Niles agreed.

The vote to make the Finance Committee 'regular' was three to two. Black and Niles were opposed.

Medical Agent

The Selectmen then shifted to the status of the Medical Agent of the Board of Health - Dr. Gerald A. Fagan, who also has duties as the School Physician. With two paying positions, the gentleman probably receives more than the $800 a year which is the stated criteria for determination of 'regular' and of 'special' town employees.

Boylan moved that the Medical Agent be made 'special' He told the story about the Ipswich Drug-gist who is also a Selectman and about whom there was a recent court case.

Niles broke out into laughter, and Boylen grinned lightly. Niles stated that Mr. Boylen's inconsistency mystified him.

Here they were, Niles said, classifying unpaid volunteers as 'regular' and thus restricting their employment, and at the same time taking someone hired by the community, and making him a 'special' employee.

Dr. Fagan was then voted a 'special' employee, with Mrs Drew and Niles not voting.

'It's a farce' said Niles.

After voting Dr. Fagan a 'special' employee the Selectmen then turned their attention to the Attorney for the Board of Health.

This, they decided, they should ask the Town Counsel about.

Activity Report

The Selectmen then discussed the town's activities. The Town Clerk's report said that April was a busy month, and she was behind in her work. A previous assistant, Margaret Wagstaff, was now working for the Town Manager.

Niles spoke of police department violations being down from the last year's report. Melzar attributed this to the effect of the radar.

Niles said that the Highway Department seemed to be burning out a lot of machinery. Was this from plowing? Melzar said yes, plowing unaccepted streets, Garden Avenue being one of them.

Niles noted that the Student Engineers were evidently 'bothering' the Town Engineer. Melzar said the engineer had to 'teach them'. The problem was that he was getting sophomores and juniors, from Northeastern, and not seniors, 'you should take this with a grain of salt'.

Niles noted that there was no report from the Recreation Department. None was submitted, Melzar said. Miceli said they should have one for the next monthly activity report.

There was a discussion of vandalism in the schools. Melzar said kids were parking down behind the tennis court at night, and that the Chief of Police had informed him that the property had to be posted 'before he could do anything'.

Boylan asked if the police were doing anything about dumping. Melzar said the police were catching people, and 'they were even dumping at Brown's Crossing'. People were dumping anywhere where the police were not looking. Melzar told the Selectmen about the contractor who is digging up the Mystic River mud, and instead of dumping his mud on barges, to be taken out of the harbor 'was bootlegging' it by dumping it in the towns.

Melzar also said that he had decided to reactivate the gas pump, for the Police Department.

Nichols Street Bridge

The Nichols Street Bridge, property of the Boston & Maine Railroad, came up for discussion. This is the bridge which Rep. Cain proposes to have replaced by the state, with the town paying for part of the cost. Letters in the past week between the B&M and the Mass. Department of Public Works have discussed this subject, with the railroad saying 'We presume that the initiative in transferring ownership (to the town) will be taken by the Town of Wilmington.'

Melzar brought up the subject. He said he had a letter from the state saying that Wilmington did not own the bridge, and that Mr. Cain's application for assistance was null and void until the B&M passed the title to the town. Meanwhile, Melzar said, the state suggested that the bridge was to remain as is.

There was a groan, and Miceli said that because the town didn't own the bridge, the plan was no good? He went on to say that he was going to go on, and try to 'straighten out the farce'.

Niles said that he didn't believe that the Nichols Street bridge was included in Cain's application for the rebuilding of the four other bridges - that the town had already voted $40,000 for this bridge.

Melzar was instructed to investigate with the B&M RR.

Melzar then told the Selectmen that the town had made a mistake and paid $125 in damages to the wrong people, on Boutwell St., back in 1962. He couldn't find out who had made the error. It concerned property owned by Julius Yale, (living, at that time in the former Walter Currier home).

Damages were awarded in 1961, he sold the property, and then came up from Connecticut, to claim the money, to which he had rights, as he owned it when the award was made.

But the money had been paid to Arthur and Louise Clark, who are now in Canada, but who had owned the property in 1960.

Melzar said the town owed Yale a check, plus interest.

He then reported that he had bought a flagpole for the Common, from Bill Traer of Woburn Street for $1367. It is an exposed aluminum pole, 60 feet high.

Payment was to be made, Melzar said, by transfer of accounts. Joe McMahon had $1100 in one account, the Sabra Carter Common fund had $100, and he hoped that he could get $100 from the Memorial Day Committee, and have the pole up by Memorial Day.

Niles asked if it had been put up to bids. Melzar said no, Traer was a local man, and he had the pole.

Melzar told the board he had a letter from Supt. of Schools Harold Shea, and that the School Committee had recommended signs. Jimmy White, Supt. of Highways, had said the signs would cost $2000. Perhaps there should be some selection, as to the schools that needed signs.

Niles wanted to know who was going to make the selection. Melzar thought that Mr Shea should know. Niles said that the problem was also one for the Chief of Police, that he was constantly reminding them that there was not enough posting of signs. The posting should be done in such a way that the Chief could enforce the regulation, 'We can't tie his hands' Miceli suggested that the Supt. of Schools, the Chief, and the TM should discuss it.

Melzar reported that some of the town boards were raising salaries for their clerks, without consulting him or the Town Accountant. It was, he said, a problem of administration, and he wanted the selectmen to know before the 'howl' went up.

Miceli said he had a report that was favorable, for the Park Street bridge over Route 93. Results would be in this week.

New Business

Mrs Drew told the Selectmen that she had a report from Taft Road that a house was being built and that a lot of paper and boxes were blowing around. The neighbors were concerned.

She also had a report that children were smashing urns, in the cemetery. Why were children allowed there?

Melzar said he had been told that kids were sneaking through a hole in the cemetery fence. He would speak to the Cemetery Supt.

Niles said the police should be thanked for their sign on Middlesex Avenue. It had been effective.

Black said that many signs around town were a disgrace to the town. They should be repaired or replaced. He also pointed out that traffic in the square was hazardous, on Thursday and Friday.

The town, he said, should do something about Olson Road (near the fire station). It was accepted 10 years ago, and nothing had been done. The traffic situation, Black said is ridiculous.

Niles asked what should be done, and Black said that Olson Road should be opened to the parking lot behind the Middlesex County Bank. Cars were parked along Church Street and Main Street all day. He had had to take five stops, in traffic, till he had got to the square and the green light.

Niles suggested that the Planning Board make a feasibility study. Black said the town was lucky to have the MCNB parking lot.

Boylan wanted to know if the police officers were out on Thursday and Friday nights to direct traffic. He was told there was one at the bank, and one at the center. How about the traffic lights? Boylen asked. Melzar said that the state would not allow them to keep a box there.

Black again spoke of signs. The kids had defaced them. Melzar said the kids couldn't bend the poles. The poles had been bent by plows.

Miceli said that a heavy duty equipment man had said that the town's street sweeper was being used improperly. It should not be used in wet weather, as this ruins the vacuum cleaner, etc.

He also said he had had a call from the attorney for DeMoulas, saying that they were ready for 'the hearing'. (An application for a gas station, dealt with by the Board of Selectmen some months ago). Miceli now considered that the application was invalid, and had told the attorney to submit a new one. The request was for a hearing on May 15.

IT WAS SUPPOSED TO BE A SURPRISE PARTY: But someone slipped the evening before, and Mrs Balsar heard the news 24 hours early.

Mr and Mrs Foster Balsar of Middlesex Avenue, at their 25th Anniversary party, held in the Masonic Hall, on April 8th. They were married 25 years ago in the Pearson Tavern, in North Wilmington, the last marriage to have taken place in the historic building.

NANCY
(Fr. P.8)

daughter, Mrs Roger W Dean, of Holden, and, it being the Ruby Anniversary, Mary Worby was the recipient of some ruby gems.

There was also a beautiful money tree

Fred Worby's father, who is 87, was among those who were present. He recently retired from the Sturbridge Village, in mid-western Massachusetts.

Fred Worby works for the American Optical Company, and the couple have been residents of Wilmington for the past eight years.

Among the Wilmington guests who were present were Mr and Mrs Albert Allard of Cedar Crest Road, Mr and Mrs Frank Tuttle of Carson Avenue, Mr and Mrs Elwood Gaskill of Beacon Street and Mr and Mrs Robert Farnham of Wildwood Street.

We've heard some more about that gasoline thief, who has been emptying gas tanks in North Wilmington and especially in the Hathaway Acres area.

Last winter Al Lane, of Sheridan Road bought a new battery, new sparkplugs, etc., just to be certain that his car would start without trouble, in the morning. The very next morning his battery was gone, and the car had been sitting near the back door steps all night, with the back outside light burning.

And just a couple of days ago a new couple, who had just moved into the area, had the pleasure of looking out the window and seeing some fellows taking off the hub caps to their car. Naturally they reacted - and tried to catch the fellows, but they were missing three hubcaps when it was all over.

Tuesday the Fire Department officially, scientifically and completely burned up the remainder of the old farm house on Friend's Farm, as well as the remainder of the old Tweed-Manning House, thereby depriving Wilmington's Fire Bug of Wilmington of two targets.

Monte Green hired a bulldozer to knock them down, the week before. Both had become pretty bad eyesores, and there's one thing the town can thank Monte for.

Lloyd Bender informs me that we were wrong on only three counts. It wasn't a broken ankle, it didn't happen on Monday afternoon, and it wasn't in Winchester. Monday afternoon, he says, he was busy in his insurance business.

It was Monday evening. It was in Wakefield. And he didn't break his ankle. He broke three bones in his foot.

AND YOU KNOW, GALS, one of the many nice things we hear so often is: 'Isn't it Pleasant and Easy to Shop at the Shamrock - and isn't everyone so cordial and so courteous?'

But, of course, the Shamrock has been building its very own Loyal Following for More Than 10 Years now, with New Faces coming into view every day of the Week.

Isn't it nice to be able to 'Come As You Are' to the Shamrock - Whether you pop right out of your kitchen (Curlers and All) or drop by on your way to visit (All horsed up)?

You're NEVER out of place at the Shamrock, because it's just that kind of an informal place to shop.
